FOG FLYERS PLAN TEST

Guggenheims Get Back of Study

Laboratory Will be Built to Find Method for Defying Mists

Hazardous Experiments in Air Contemplated for Aid of Aviation

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. (AP)—Fog, long an enemy of aviation—is about to be made safe for flying.

A full flight laboratory on a section of an established airway, where fog flying under regular operating conditions can be studied, will be established within ten days by the Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the promotion of aeronautics.

LINDBERGH TO AID

This was announced today by Harry Guggenheim, head of the fund, who disclosed at the same time that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will act as special adviser to the enterprise.

An experienced pilot with engineering and scientific training and the airway for the experiments will be selected in the next ten days. The pilot in charge will be a man of the type of Lieut. Albert Hegenberger, who flew to the Hawaiian Islands; Lieut. James A. Doolittle, speed and stunt flyer, and Eric Nelson, of world-flight fame.

The experiments will be extremely hazardous, Guggenheim said, adding, "the risk will be worth while, which I don't think a good many spectacular ones are."

TEST DEVICES

An ordinary all-metal plane, with a modified wing of more surface to get lower landing speed, will be used. Everything advanced to date for fog flying will be thoroughly tested, many of the devices for the first time in actual flight.

The experiments, according to Guggenheim, will be continued until fog flying is made safe.

Lindbergh will fly over the route during some of the tests, according to the plan.

Other aviators will be selected to assist in the experiments.

OHIO-FLOOD RAIL WRECK HURTS MANY

Train Leaves Tracks at Washout Near Sebring; One Storm Destroyed Reported

ALLIANCE (O.) Aug. 9. (AP)—The fireman and engineer on Pennsylvania passenger train No. 815, en route from Youngstown to Alliance, were injured slightly, and more than twenty passengers were shaken up when three coaches and the locomotive were derailed by a washout near Sebring, four miles from here last night.

A severe rain and electrical storm which swept the section east and north of there washed out 200 feet of the Pennsylvania track, according to reports made to the police here, caused one death and damaged much property.

The train was pulling eight coaches through the blinding torrent that accompanied the storm. The locomotive was derailed, and the coaches were derailed. As it plowed into the disrupted rails the locomotive turned over and caused the derailment of three coaches.

MUSCOLINI RECEIVES ITALIA COMMANDER

ROME, Aug. 9. (AP)—Premier Mussolini today received Umberto Mussolini, who presented to him his first report of the Italian disaster.

The Italian Premier some time ago informed the cabinet that a complete investigation will be made into all phases of the loss of the North Pole dirigible.

Opportunity Versus Chance

Many men—and women too—confuse chance and opportunity.

For while there is little opportunity in chance, there is a wealth of chance in opportunity—the chance to progress and prosper.

Especially is this true of the business propositions made daily in the classified "Business Opportunities" columns of The Times.

There reliable businesses with faith in themselves and in their enterprise seek capable executives, additional capital or new owners. You take no chances in letting these columns be your guide to good business investments.

The Man With the Hoe

TUNNEY SPURNS HIS PUBLIC ISLE NEARLY DESTROYED IN ERUPTION

"I Don't Want to be Annoyed," He Tells Reporters, and "I'll Never be Photographed Again"

BRISTOL (Me.) Aug. 9. (Exclusive)—Gene Tunney, the student in Shakespeare who quit the prime ring to give the girl of his dreams an engagement ring, is all washed up with the public that "made him."

Found on the safe of Bristol where he and his beloved fiancée, Mary Josephine Lauder, are preparing for their wedding, Gene tossed off a few ideas on what he termed "the unreasonable" of the public which dropped a mere $2,000,000 in his lap within three years.

"I have retired to private life and I don't want to be annoyed," Gene told dripping reporters who navigated through fog to the island in a leaky rowboat.

Switching from his "Greenwich Villages" to his best accent: "Really if a man announced in England that he was retired from public the public of that country would never bother him again. They would not rush him and try to shake his hand and rumple his clothes in the crush."

"Are the fellows who contributed to that double million stocking of yours included in the public?" Gene was asked, but he turned away and called to one of the numerous guards who are protecting the abductor of the throne of John L. Sullivan.

"And what about the newspapers?" someone inquired. "Oh, the newspapers have done a lot for me," the philosophical ex-pugilist admitted, "but my family does not care for pictures in the newspapers. Those others also dear to me do not care for pictures, and Miss Lauder will not be photographed."

The athletic figure of the bookish fighter's fiancée was seen near a window as he said this. She suddenly disappeared and that of her mother, Mrs. George Lauder, Jr., appeared, but only for a moment. Previous to Gene's reluctant reception to the scribes Mrs. Lauder had backed up the assertion of guards and lackeys that "nobody is home."

"I never will be photographed again," Tunney added, "unless it's done when I'm not looking. We just don't like pictures in the paper."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9. (AP)—Assistant Secretary Lowman, head of the prohibition unit, said today "smelling" warrants through private dwellings no longer will be used. Heretofore when an agent smelled something he believed was brewing or distilling of alcoholic beverages in a private dwelling he could obtain search warrants and investigate the premises.

The new ruling makes warrants necessary to search private homes, the warrants to be obtained only on evidence of sale of liquor on the premises.

North Attacked by Heat Wave

REDDING, Aug. 9. (AP)—The mercury touched 108 deg. here today, the highest mark of the season. Reports from down valley, Red Bluff, Willows and Corning, tell of record high marks in each place. Thermometers on Mt. Shasta registered 94 at one time today, 6 deg. less than the high mark of three weeks ago.

FINANCIER'S ESTATE LARGE

Loewenstein Fortune, Despite Shrinkage Before Death, Put at $40,000,000

LONDON, Aug. 9. (AP)—The Evening News says that Capt. Alfred Loewenstein, Belgian financier, who recently was killed in a fall from his airplane into the English Channel, left $40,000,000 to be equally divided between his widow and son.

The newspaper adds that it understands in the last three weeks before his death, Capt. Loewenstein lost about $600,000.

Mrs. Loewenstein, widow of the financier, refused tonight to discuss the report and declined to comment on the terms of her husband's will or her own plans for the future. Financial circles here agree that the estate suffered a heavy shrinkage in the weeks just preceding the dramatic disappearance and death of Capt. Loewenstein.

HOOVER DAY HERALDED

Governor Issues Many Sections Proclamation

Young Says Notification of California Man Marks Epoch

Ceremony Begins at Noon; Two-Mile Zone for Planes Ordered

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9. (AP)—Gov. Young tonight issued a proclamation calling attention of the people of California to the ceremony at Stanford University Saturday when Herbert Hoover will be notified of his selection as the Republican Presidential nominee.

Terminating the affair an epochal event, Gov. Young said the occasion will be important to the people of California because it will be the first time in American history that such a ceremony will be held on the Pacific Coast. The Governor said there might be 100,000 people present.

Cater of the big athletic stadium on the campus of Stanford University will be thrown open at 12 o'clock Saturday. At 2:30 p.m. an hour's program will begin. Daylight fireworks and a salvo of aerial bombs will open the ceremony and four bands will play during the ceremonies. These will include the official band, the Stanford University band, the Olympic Club band and the Pasadena American Legion drum and bugle corps.

After flag-raising ceremonies at 3:30, the actual notification ceremonies will begin with Gov. Young introducing Senator Moses of New Hampshire, chairman of the notification committee. Hoover will officially learn of his nomination and deliver his speech of acceptance, outlining the principles of his campaign.

Word came out of Palo Alto this afternoon that no airplanes are to be allowed within two miles of the notification ceremony. This step was taken, it is said, to prevent noise from disturbing the audience or speakers.

A police plan, piloted by an air traffic policeman will be on guard to prevent such invasions.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC PLANS FOR PALO ALTO CROWDS

All trains for Palo Alto today will be loaded down with Republicans traveling north to participate in the Hoover notification ceremony at Stanford, according to C. L. McPaul, assistant passenger traffic manager for the Southern Pacific.

Parties from a number of Southern California cities will leave on a special train at the Lark. The Sunset Limited, the Lark and the Coastier all will make stops at Palo Alto Saturday morning for the convenience of those attending the ceremony. These trains also will stop at Palo Alto Saturday evening to take on passengers returning to Southern California.

It is feared that nine native boats en route from Celebes Island to Paloweh founded with their crews.

The Dutch resident of Timor is proceeding to the scene of the disaster.

Paloweh Island, also known as Rusa Rajah Island, lies about 100 miles off the north coast of Flores Island, one of the larger of the Malay Archipelago islands. It is about four miles in diameter and rises to a peak 4500 feet high, which is covered with trees to its summit.

LITTLE APPARENTLY VICTOR IN KANSAS

TOPEKA (Kan.) Aug. 9. (AP)—Nomination of Chauncey B. Little of Okla., former Representative, as the Democratic candidate for Governor was indicated this afternoon on the face of unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary in Kansas. Little had a margin of 2008 votes over Ed T. Hackney of Wellington on returns from 2375 precincts out of 2650 in the State.

MISSION MEMBER DIES

LIMA (Peru) Aug. 8. (AP)—Commander John J. Luchins, Jr., a member of the American naval mission to Peru, died yesterday at Bella Vista Hospital.

The broadcast throughout Southern California of the ceremonies attendant upon the notification of Herbert Hoover by his selection as the Presidential candidate of the Republican party and the nominee's acceptance address has been arranged by The Times.

The broadcast will be made through KHJ, the Don Lee station, tomorrow afternoon.

The broadcast will start at 3:30 p.m., with preliminary descriptions of the assembling crowd, arrival of celebrities, bands playing, etc. Gov. Young will begin the speechmaking and he will be followed by Senator Moses, who formally will advise Secretary Hoover of his nomination. The Stanford University band will play the national anthem. Mr. Hoover is expected to begin his speech of acceptance at about 4:15 o'clock. Its delivery will take approximately forty-five minutes.

KHJ, on its usual wave length of 399.5 meters, or 750 kilocycles, will be hooked up by line telephone to the Columbia network, the first time that a Pacific Coast station has been connected by wires with this chain, which, under ordinary conditions, does not reach west of Kansas City and St. Louis.

In addition to the arrangements for the broadcast made by The Times, a battery of loud-speakers will be installed at the Times Building, Broadway and First street, where the proceedings will be available to a sidewalk audience in either street.

Five Entombed by Mine Blast

JOHNSTON (Pa.) Aug. 9. (AP)—Five miners were entombed last night in the Lochrie Coal Company mine five miles south of here following an explosion.

Nine men were at work in the mine at the time of the blast, the cause of which has not yet been determined. Four were rescued.

Former Agriculture Official Attacks Tammany

Platform Held Inisicere on Farm Plans

Viceman Says Tammany Puts Out Gold Brick

CHICAGO, Aug. 9. (AP)—Carl Vrooman of Bloomington, Ill., who was assistant secretary of Agriculture under President Wilson, today announced his opposition to the candidacy of Gov. Smith for the Presidency at the offices of the western Republican campaign headquarters.

Vrooman's statement, sent to James W. Good, western campaign manager, said: "The Tammany Hall campaign idea seems to be based on the theory that it can sell political gold-brick promises to a bunch of hayseeds out West. I am confident the farmers of this country will not fall for this latest 'con game' from 'The Sidewalks of New York'."

ACTIVE FOR FARMERS

An assistant secretary of Agriculture under both administrations of President Wilson, Vrooman has been active in behalf of the "farmers" in the Democratic party. He drafted and introduced the first farm-relief bill in Congress in 1911. It was the only bill of its kind to be passed by both houses of Congress by a two-thirds majority vote. It was prevented from becoming a law only by action "in conference."

His letter to Good charges Tammany with being "Democratic in name only." "It is essentially mercenary and parasitic," he wrote. "It double-crossed Wilson, Coon and De Witt."

CANDOR DENIED

"One of Tammany's first acts was of subterfuge and double dealing. The agricultural plank in the Houston platform was a masterpiece of ambiguity, so framed as to admit of one interpretation in the East and another in the West and South."

"A few hours after a conference with Peak (George N. Peak of Missouri, Ill.) Gov. Smith endorsed the equalization fee principle, but the next day he put out a statement

TROUT SENT BY AIR TO HOOVER

Inyo County Catch Offered Nominees by Southland Fishermen's Guild

A ten-pound catch of trout, in charge of a special custodian, went forward to Herbert Hoover yesterday on a Maddux air liner.

The Fishermen's Guild of Southern California sponsored the delicate offering to the Presidential nominee, who is president of the Inak Walton League.

Miss Irma Drew Hughes, daughter of U. S. R. Hughes, national field representative of fishermen, was in charge of the trout, which were taken in Inyo county.

SMITH TOLD LID'S TIGHT IN SARATOGA

State Troopers Send Word Governor's Orders Against Vice Reign Carried Out

ALBANY (N. Y.) Aug. 9. (AP)—A report that the lid on gambling and vice had been clamped down at Saratoga Springs was received today by Gov. Smith from State troopers who, in plain clothes, are watching conditions there.

The Governor, who had threatened three of the law enforcement officials at Saratoga with dismissal if they failed to suppress vice and gaming, said the troopers' report that "things were lightened up" held them to strict accounting for enforcement of the law. The officials promised to be vigilant and the report today from the State police was based on observation made last night in Saratoga after the three had returned there.

BOND PLEAS LIMITED

San Francisco-Bakers Fix Maximum Request to Go On Ballot

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9. (Exclusive)—At a conference between Mayor Rolph and representatives of various city departments today, it was agreed to restrict to $10,000, 000 the amount of proposed bond issues to be submitted to the electorate in November. This total is less than one-third the amount originally asked by the various departments. The cut is considered a direct result of strenuous opposition to the original figure.

Opponents declared a higher figure would jeopardize the success of bonds needed to complete municipal expansion projects, one of which is the Hetch Hetchy water system.

HIGHWAY CONTRACTS LET BY STATE BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 9. (AP)—Award of contracts for $19,000,000 of work on the Coast and Sonora Pass highways was announced today by the State Department of Public Works. Silveira & Robbins of Ventura were given the contract for grading and paving two-tenths of a mile of the Coast route on the Conejo grade near Camarillo, Ventura county. The paving will cost $918,000.

Mankel & Stirling of Sacramento drew the Sonora Pass work, consisting of hauling oil-treated surfacing between Keystone and Jameston, Tuolumne county, on their bid of $10,079.

HOOVER MAKES TRIP CHANGES

Plans to Leave Palo Alto Next Thursday

Nominees May Speak About Boulder Dam Here

Will Elucidate Farm Stand at Old Iowa Home

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 9. (AP)—More changes in and additions to Herbert Hoover's itinerary on the return trip to Washington were announced tentatively today, with repudiation speeches scheduled at Albuquerque, N. M., Hutchinson and Topeka, Kan., and other places.

The special train of the Republican Presidential candidate will leave here one week from tonight for San Francisco where it will be made early the next day so the nominee can attend a celebration there. Los Angeles will be the next stop, with a reception at the civic center and an address in which Hoover expects to deal with some of the problems of Southern California.

MAY TALK ON DAM

Whether the nominee will touch on the Boulder Canyon dam development remains to be determined, but some of his advisers say he probably will. This subject is one of those uppermost in the minds of people in Southern California and is the main issue in the campaign now being conducted by Senator Johnson for his re-election to the Senate.

After the Los Angeles reception Hoover will move on to Long Beach to attend the annual picnic of former Iowa now residents of California. The present plan is for him to board his train and make only a rear-platform appearance at Pasadena.

DINES AT BIRTHPLACE

The nominee will reach Kansas City on the night of the 20th inst., remaining there for perhaps an hour. Arriving at West Branch early on the morning of the 21st inst., he and Mrs. Hoover and their son Allan will have breakfast in the house in which Hoover was born. At 7 p.m. he will make his second address of the campaign, and will make only a rear-platform appearance at Pasadena.

With his state cleared of engagements today Mr. Hoover was able to practically complete his West Branch speech, in which he will deal with the agricultural situation in considerable detail perhaps than he will in his acceptance speech here Saturday.

HOOVER'S NATIVE TOWN TO SET UP MAMMOTH TENT

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 9. (AP)—Herbert Hoover's native village of West Branch, Iowa, is sprucing up for the great day of the return of its orphaned son, reports received here indicate, and a "big top" to shelter the crowd is being set up on the high school football field.

"The big tent will cover the whole field," said T. H. Moore, chairman of the West Branch arrangements committee, "at least 800 feet by 100 feet. Then a smaller tent will be set up on the adjoining field, with the little tent and the big tent there will be covered space a good 800 feet long."

"Amplified by being arranged," he added, "so that 50,000 people can hear the address at different points in the village, on the lawn, in the auditorium of the high school and in open spaces along the main street."

SLAYS RESIDENT OF WEST FLEDGE HOOVER SUPPORT

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 9. (AP)—The support of Slavic voters in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States was pledged to Herbert Hoover today by a delegation of leaders, who called at the Republican candidate's home.

Thanking them, Hoover said the American and Slav blocks of the world's population could together guarantee the peace of the world.

FIVE HUNDRED WHALES KILLED IN ONE DRIVE

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 9. (AP)—Five hundred whales were killed yesterday off Westmann Haven in the Faroe Islands of the North Sea. The monsters appeared in a big school and every available craft in the islands was hastily manned for the drive against them.

Accidental Shot Ends Boy's Life

MODESTO, Aug. 9. (AP)—Playing with an automatic pistol which lay in a bureau drawer, Lewis F. Hill, Jr., 8 years of age, was fatally wounded today when the pistol exploded. The bullet passed through the drawer and lodged under the child's heart. He died soon afterward.

Lewis was showing the pistol to three little friends, when the accident occurred. After being wounded he ran part way downstairs before he collapsed.

Party High Command Visits Southland Leaders in campaign to put Secretary of Commerce in the White House

PASADENA, Aug. 9. (Exclusive)—Pre-election signs foretold that Herbert Hoover will be elected President of the United States by one of the greatest majorities ever recorded, declared Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who, accompanied by Gov. Fisher of Pennsylvania and Robert D. Clark, transportation superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, arrived here at 6:30 a.m. today.

No reception committee met the train and the party left immediately by automobile for Santa Barbara en route to the Hoover notification ceremonies at Palo Alto on Saturday. They boarded the Shoreline Limited at Santa Barbara at 11:15 a.m. today. The party spent the night in Del Monte as guests of Samuel G. Blythe of Carmel, an old friend of the former Secretary of the Interior. Tomorrow morning they expect to leave by motor for Palo Alto.

Dr. Work is confident that California will return one of the largest majorities in its history for the Republican Presidential nominee. Gov. Fisher, in speaking of the crash in Pennsylvania, said: "I am making some study of our political situation. I prophesy that 1928 will prove to be the biggest Republican year in my State."

BRUSH FIRE ON KAWEAH STUBBORN

Large Timber Holdings of Edison Company Periled by Progress of Blaze

THREE RIVERS, Aug. 9. (AP)—With a considerable portion of the brush fire that has raged for several days on the south fork of the Kaweah River under control today, the fire still is refusing efforts to curb it at two points and still constitutes a menace to many thousands of dollars worth of property.

North of the south fork of the Kaweah the blaze is continuing its progress over the Case Mountain area toward the middle fork of the river. It is approaching a large acreage of timber-covered hillsides belonging to the Southern California Edison Company. Fire fighters are doubtful whether this timber can be saved.

South of the river, at the southwest corner of the original fire area, another uncontrolled fire existed today. This is burning toward a large acreage of grading land and threatening the two points and still constitutes a menace to many thousands of dollars worth of property.

Altogether, the fire has burned between 9000 and 10,000 acres of brush, with only small timber losses.

Yosemite National Park in the Merced River Canyon was burning eastward today. Ten park rangers were sent from here to aid in fighting the fire.

Banker's Wife Ends Her Life

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. (AP)—The police tonight reported that Mrs. Helen Marshall, wife of a vice-president of the National City Bank, committed suicide today by hanging from a bedroom of the nine-room Marshall apartment on Riverside Drive.

Mrs. Marshall found the body suspended by an electric iron cord from a door in the bedroom. Ill-health it is said, caused the act.

Broker Falls to His Death

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9. (AP)—Arthur Hamilton Vail, manager of the Philadelphia office of Halsey, Stuart & Co., investment brokers, today fell to his death from the fourteenth floor of the Packard Building, where the company's offices are located.

Vail fell only a few minutes after he arrived at the office. His death was screened from the remainder of the office by a glass partition. His hat was found wedged on his head when his body was picked up.

In his fall Vail struck a skylight of a clothing store, shattering the glass and causing considerable damage among the employees. He was 46 years of age.

MOSES ARRIVES TO TELL HOOVER

Senator at Bay City Armed With Notification Speech

Republican Victory Held to be Already Assured

Smith's Cyranosis Called Part of Silly Season

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9. (Exclusive)—Armed with the notification speech he will deliver on behalf of the Republican party to Herbert Hoover in Stanford Stadium Saturday, Senator Moses of Nevada reached here today exuding optimism and trenchant campaign comments.

"I am perfectly confident of Hoover's election, of course," were his first words.

"Just now we are in the silly season of the campaign. This is the month in which the Democrats usually carry the country and they are running true to form."

SMITH PLAYS SAFE

"Gov. Smith is trying to play it safe everywhere. He waited until he had the nomination before he repudiated the platform and he waited until he had tied up Peak, the agricultural leader, before he repudiated the equalization-fee plan."

"How many more grations he will go through before the campaign is over I do not know."

Senator Moses, who was permanent chairman of the Republican National Convention which nominated Hoover at Kansas City, was accompanied by Mrs. Moses, Percival F. Baxter, former Governor of Maine, and Fred C. Walcott, State Senator of Connecticut.

The election in Maine on September 10, declared Atty.-Gen. Baxter, "will be a clean-cut fight between the two parties under strictly normal conditions. There is considerable truth in the old proverb, 'As Maine goes, so goes the nation.' The election in that State will be the first test of strength between the two parties. I confidently expect a Republican majority of 40,000, or double the 1924 figure."

CONNECTICUT FOR HOOVER

"Connecticut," added Senator Walcott, "has gone Democratic several times, but this year I think it is safely for Hoover by a large majority."

"We received reports of Republican chances all along the route," supplemented Senator Moses.

"It is well to remember, though, we are facing an alert, adroit and affluent foe. The Democrats this year have more money than they have had since the Cleveland campaign in 1892. We won't be exactly evenly matched, but the Republicans have set definite limits and already are filing reports of campaign expenditures, with the Democrats the sky is the limit. Very astute, however, may prove their undoing, for they may make the same mistakes in spending their money."

PENNSYLVANIA SAFE

"There is much talk of Pennsylvania and New Jersey and Massachusetts being doubtful States. They are doubtful only in the scenario the Democrats are writing. When the final picture is made up, they will be safely Republican by good majorities."

"The Democrats haven't a chance in any State in the Middle West. It is approaching a large acreage of timber-covered hillsides belonging to the Southern California Edison Company. Fire fighters are doubtful whether this timber can be saved."

South of the river, at the southwest corner of the original fire area, another uncontrolled fire existed today. This is burning toward a large acreage of grading land and threatening the two points and still constitutes a menace to many thousands of dollars worth of property.

Altogether, the fire has burned between 9000 and 10,000 acres of brush, with only small timber losses.

Yosemite National Park in the Merced River Canyon was burning eastward today. Ten park rangers were sent from here to aid in fighting the fire.

Banker's Wife Ends Her Life

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. (AP)—The police tonight reported that Mrs. Helen Marshall, wife of a vice-president of the National City Bank, committed suicide today by hanging from a bedroom of the nine-room Marshall apartment on Riverside Drive.

Mrs. Marshall found the body suspended by an electric iron cord from a door in the bedroom. Ill-health it is said, caused the act.

Broker Falls to His Death

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9. (AP)—Arthur Hamilton Vail, manager of the Philadelphia office of Halsey, Stuart & Co., investment brokers, today fell to his death from the fourteenth floor of the Packard Building, where the company's offices are located.

Vail fell only a few minutes after he arrived at the office. His death was screened from the remainder of the office by a glass partition. His hat was found wedged on his head when his body was picked up.

In his fall Vail struck a skylight of a clothing store, shattering the glass and causing considerable damage among the employees. He was 46 years of age.

Accidental Shot Ends Boy's Life

MODESTO, Aug. 9. (AP)—Playing with an automatic pistol which lay in a bureau drawer, Lewis F. Hill, Jr., 8 years of age, was fatally wounded today when the pistol exploded. The bullet passed through the drawer and lodged under the child's heart. He died soon afterward.

Lewis was showing the pistol to three little friends, when the accident occurred. After being wounded he ran part way downstairs before he collapsed.

PAROLE APPROVED FOR WILLIAM DWYER

MOSES ARRIVES TO TELL HOOVER

Senator at Bay City Armed With Notification Speech

Republican Victory Held to be Already Assured

Smith's Cyranosis Called Part of Silly Season

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9. (Exclusive)—Armed with the notification speech he will deliver on behalf of the Republican party to Herbert Hoover in Stanford Stadium Saturday, Senator Moses of Nevada reached here today exuding optimism and trenchant campaign comments.

"I am perfectly confident of Hoover's election, of course," were his first words.

"Just now we are in the silly season of the campaign. This is the month in which the Democrats usually carry the country and they are running true to form."

SMITH PLAYS SAFE

"Gov. Smith is trying to play it safe everywhere. He waited until he had the nomination before he repudiated the platform and he waited until he had tied up Peak, the agricultural leader, before he repudiated the equalization-fee plan."

"How many more grations he will go through before the campaign is over I do not know."

Senator Moses, who was permanent chairman of the Republican National Convention which nominated Hoover at Kansas City, was accompanied by Mrs. Moses, Percival F. Baxter, former Governor of Maine, and Fred C. Walcott, State Senator of Connecticut.

The election in Maine on September 10, declared Atty.-Gen. Baxter, "will be a clean-cut fight between the two parties under strictly normal conditions. There is considerable truth in the old proverb, 'As Maine goes, so goes the nation.' The election in that State will be the first test of strength between the two parties. I confidently expect a Republican majority of 40,000, or double the 1924 figure."

CONNECTICUT FOR HOOVER

"Connecticut," added Senator Walcott, "has gone Democratic several times, but this year I think it is safely for Hoover by a large majority."

"We received reports of Republican chances all along the route," supplemented Senator Moses.

"It is well to remember, though, we are facing an alert, adroit and affluent foe. The Democrats this year have more money than they have had since the Cleveland campaign in 1892. We won't be exactly evenly matched, but the Republicans have set definite limits and already are filing reports of campaign expenditures, with the Democrats the sky is the limit. Very astute, however, may prove their undoing, for they may make the same mistakes in spending their money."

PENNSYLVANIA SAFE

FIRST BALE AT VALLEY COTTON GIN

Early Production Record Set by Griffin's Ranch Near Earlimart

DELANO, Aug. 9.—The first bale of the 1928 San Joaquin Valley cotton crop was ginned yesterday at Earlimart, according to D. J. Cecil of the San Joaquin Cotton Oil Company here. The bale was picked at the ranch of R. M. Griffin and was reported to be of good quality. It weighed 585 pounds and set a record for the valley in early cotton production, being the first bale of Kern county's estimated crop of more than 40,000 bales this season. The first cotton in the valley is ginned about the 15th of August, according to gin officials. Cotton men report that this year's harvest is from one to three weeks earlier than last year's crop at this time. It is predicted that this year's crop will be well under way early in September.

SCHOOLS PROVIDED FOR CHILDREN OF PICKERS

COBORAN, Aug. 9.—With 14,000 acres of cotton to be harvested in this area, requiring a small army of pickers and their families, County Superintendent of Schools Elsie J. Bosman is preparing to provide special schools for the children of itinerant laborers. Last season five schools with ten teachers were maintained and this season a larger number of pupils will be provided for.

ADVERTISING LEADER DIES IN NEW YORK

President of Notable Agency Succumbs After Brief Illness

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. (Exclusive) Thomas F. Logan, president of the advertising agency of Lord & Thomas & Logan of New York, Chicago and London, died at his home at 400 Madison avenue today following a brief illness. Mr. Logan was 47 years of age. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mildred Logan. Mr. Logan was born in Philadelphia. After leaving school he joined the staff of the Philadelphia Enquirer, and for ten years acted as Washington correspondent of that paper. During the war he served on the staff of the United States Army in France as a special shipping commissioner for the United States. In 1919 he returned to New York to organize the advertising firm bearing his name, which later was merged with the Lord & Thomas agency.

Missouri Opens Life Insurance Shortage Quiz

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Aug. 9. (AP)—Gov. Baker today directed Robert Daly, attorney of the State Insurance Department, to take charge of the investigation into affairs of the International Life Insurance Company of St. Louis. Daly is in St. Louis investigating the asserted shortage of $5,500,000 in securities. The inquiry was instigated by Charles R. Dietrich, insurance commissioner of California, who has been heading a group of insurance officials checking up on the International's affairs. Dietrich has demanded that the missing $5,500,000 in bonds be returned by tomorrow. The examiners are to meet then. Daly is a receiver for the International and an injunction to prevent reinsurance of its policies in the Missouri State Life Insurance Company, as proposed, was filed in Federal Court at St. Louis late today by Attorney Wilson, founder of International Life, and C. P. Long of Tupelo, Miss., both stockholders.

Deaths in Insane Asylum Laid to Bad Treatment

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Aug. 9. (AP)—A story of the death of a dozen patients, dying of the treatment they received when taken to the Northern State Hospital for the Insane at Sedro Woolley, and a request for criminal prosecution of a guard at the institution climaxed a special state investigation of conditions at the hospital here today. Tim Healy, Bellingham attorney, criticized the management of the institution and asked that criminal proceedings be instituted against K. K. Kyles, a guard, whose treatment of John W. Harford, the attorney declared, was responsible for the patient's death. C. D. Gustaf, police judge and justice of the peace at Monroe, Wash., a former inmate of the institution, described brutal treatment he said inmates received, saying a doctor said:

Defeated Foe of Garner in Texas Starts Contest

UYALDE (Tex.) Aug. 9. (AP)—An effort to upset the nomination of Representative John N. Garner, who is in line for Democratic floor leader of the next session of Congress, was launched in the Thirty-eighth District Court here today by Sid Hardin, defeated candidate for the nomination in the recent primary. Hardin's petition for a certificate of nomination charges that large blocks of votes were cast by Mexicans in seven border counties who are in reality Mexican citizens and not entitled to vote. It further charges that many names of people who were not present were entered on the tally rolls and counted and that in some counties no drawing was held to determine the order of names on the ballot.

TOWN ALMOST POLICELESS

Conscripted Deputy Marshal Now Only Officer

Night Men Go on Vacation and Marshal Resigns

Argument Over Double Duty Results in Impasse

DELANO, Aug. 9.—The peace and quiet of this northern Kern county community is guarded by only one man today, as the result of a wrangle in the city police department which ended in the resignation of Marshal John Upton.

A. Ackerman, sworn in as a deputy marshal, is the city's only police officer, while George Chase, deputy marshal and involuntarily the cause of the wrangle, probably is sunning himself upon the sands of some seashore resort. Little suspecting the precarious position in which Delano finds itself.

Deputy Chase was the night officer. Yesterday he told Marshal Upton he was leaving on his vacation. "Who is going to take your place tonight?" the marshal asked. "You are," said the deputy. "The board told me." The marshal balked at working both night and day and individual members of the City Council whom he confronted yesterday, balked at making any other arrangement.

Warner Denies Film Company Will Be Sold

NEW YORK, Aug. 9. (AP)—Warner Brothers, Inc., is not for sale, and if any company wishes to obtain control it will have to do so in the open market, Harry Warner, president of the company, said today.

Reports that negotiations have been going on with Paramount-Pamous-Lasky and Fox Film Corporation recently have been current, coincident with the rise in Warner Brothers shares.

Gangsters Kill Former Mascot

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9. (AP)—Hugh McLoon, 29 years of age, former mascot of the Athletics baseball team, was killed and two other men wounded, one critically, early today when three gunmen opened fire on them from a closed automobile and then sped away. McLoon, in company with William Meister, 21, and Joseph Pries, 21, had walked a block from a saloon operated by McLoon in the downtown section of the city when they were attacked. Meister was seriously wounded and Pries was shot in the leg.

Chicago Schools Given Shake-up

CHICAGO, Aug. 9. (AP)—The personnel of the city school system was given a violent shake-up today by the new superintendent of schools, William J. Bogan. Four assistant superintendents were removed and replaced, the former cabinet members becoming principals of various schools. Three vacancies were filled, a new office was created and one position is yet to be filled.

Police and Troops Parade Zagreb Streets

Europe Fears Molten Envy May Overflow

VIENNA, Aug. 9. (AP)—Death of Stefan Raditch, Serb Croatian peasant leader, as a result of a shooting in the Chamber of Deputies, is causing deep anxiety in Europe as well as Jugoslavia.

The belief is held in some quarters that the situation contains at least the possibility of civil war for Jugoslavia unless strong outside influences are exerted efficiently.

Troops are parading today through the streets of Zagreb, where Raditch died last night at 55 years of age. Police also appear in strong force and all places of entertainment are closed.

There is an uneasy feeling that demonstrations will occur. Those, it is feared, may lead to greater disturbances in view of the intense resentment of the Croats against the Jugoslavian government party which they hold responsible for the shooting.

That such disorders might not long remain local is the fear that is causing deep anxiety elsewhere than in Jugoslavia. The bitterest of the Croats toward what they regard as Serbian domination into the Union in 1918.

well known. The prospect of a peaceful reconciliation seems hopeless at present, especially since a parliamentary commission has voted in favor of ratifying the Nettuno convention with Italy in the face of bitter Croatian opposition. The Nettuno convention permits Italians to own land along the Dalmatian coastal plains.

STATE CONSTITUTION VOTER DIES IN NORTH

PASO ROBLES, Aug. 9. (AP)—William Casey, a California pioneer who voted in 1850 because he was "man of the state," although only 15 years of age, died here today at the age of 83. He was believed to be the last survivor of those who voted to adopt the constitution under which California was admitted to the Union in 1850.

DOCTOR URGES CANCER PANIC

Physician to President Addresses Medical Men

Declares Public Must Be Made Aware of Danger

Regular Examinations After Thirty-first Year Advised

ASHLAND (Wis.) Aug. 9. (AP)—The necessity of propagating in the general public a veritable cancer "panic" if cancer mortality is ever to be checked and reduced, was emphasized today by Col. James F. Coupal, President Coupal's physician, who addressed members of eleven Wisconsin medical societies.

The White House physician traveled to Ashland, from Superior to urge the attending doctors to disregard campaigns recently started to hush up the dangers of cancer and to minimize its horrors in the eyes of the public. Wide and persistent publicity of its etiology and malign effects was the only way, Col. Coupal said, whereby the evil could be combated, since thereby people would be frightened into undergoing medical examination and detecting incipient cancer still in a stage susceptible to cure.

"Cancer phobia," or a stage of utter fear of cancer, should be entertained by all persons over the age of 31, which, according to Dr. Coupal, is roughly the demarcation line between the periods in a man's life when he is prone successively to tuberculosis and cancer. Such a state of mind must be spread if cancer is to be successfully fought, he continued, because cancer develops obvious symptoms only when the evil is so far progressed as to be incurable.

After reaching 31, all persons should be periodically examined by specialists to determine if any cancer is in formation, President Coupal's physician said. In one single week in Detroit, he added, 384 unsuspected cancer cases were detected and over 200 of these were detected early enough to be completely cured.

SEA 'DIAMONDS' STILL MISSING

Steamer's Safe Rained by Divers Fails to Show Repaired Treasure

LORIENT (France) Aug. 9. (AP)—A "mitten treasure" of millions in diamonds, sought by divers in the bulk of the Belgian steamer Elisabethville, sunk during the war, thus far has yielded $33,000 in Belgian paper francs and four English gold sovereigns. The safe was lifted from the torpedoed steamer after much arduous labor and opened with great solemnity in the presence of guards and various officials. Not a single diamond was found in it.

AIRPLANES HUNT REBEL POSITION

Marines Seek Vengeance for Death of One

Ten Nicaraguan Insurgents Slain in Clash

Three Americans Wounded in Brief Encounter

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) Aug. 9. (AP)—Marine Corps airplanes today were seeking out the position of rebels who killed one marine and wounded three others in Northern Nicaragua. The marines fired on the rebels, killing ten of them and wounding three.

Private Myer Stangle of Hartford, Conn., was killed. Thomas Faine of Roxbury, Mass.; Russell Schoenberg, South Charleston, W. Va.; Melvin Mosier, Topeka, Kan., were wounded. They were taken to Puerto Cabezas by plane for medical treatment. It was stated there they will recover unless complications develop.

The marines were members of a detachment of fifty under Capt. Merritt A. Eason of Burlington, Vt., who were hunting out a band of rebels believed to be in the Coco River region. They were making their way up the Coco River in boats and sighted the band about twenty miles from Managua on Tuesday. The marines opened fire on the rebels who gathered along the shore and a brief encounter followed.

CHURCHMEN OPPOSE SMITH

Adventists Officially Ask
Ban Against Governor

Resolution Says Prohibition
Has Benefited Country

Theaters, Dancing and Jazz
Get Attention of Body

GLENDALE, Aug. 9.—Adoption of a resolution declaring that the evils of the liquor traffic have been greatly minimized through the operation of existing prohibition laws and that public safety and welfare have been greatly enhanced by the sobriety and temperate habits of the American people since the Eighteenth Amendment went into effect, is declared by observers here to be a direct notification to Gov. Smith, Democratic candidate for the Presidency, that the Seventh-Day Adventists are opposed to his candidacy.

The Adventists, in their annual camp meeting here declared that the Eighteenth Amendment is now being assailed by those who would nullify its provisions, and went on record as renewing their allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and pledging their support to those who stand in defense of the public safety and welfare as guaranteed by the Constitution.

POLITICS TABOOED

While politics are strictly taboo at the camp meeting, the attitude of the Adventist Church is regarded by many as a slap at Gov. Smith and his wet attitude. Dr. Montgomery, president of the California branch of the Anti-Saloon League, speaking today, declared that another year, under the provisions of the Crampton bill, taking the appointment of prohibition officers out of politics, would see a still greater advance in the efficient enforcement of the dry laws and would insure the success of the prohibition movement, through a fair trial that was impossible under conditions that prevailed in the past. The liquor interests, Dr. Montgomery declared, have "spent $6,000,000 to teach the people that they cannot go forward with the work our fathers and mothers began."

Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, State president of the W.C.T.U., declared that the liquor interests are fighting with their backs to the wall and that they are concentrating on the election of a wet President. "The appointment of prohibition officers out of politics," she said, "will place the appointive power in the hands of those who would be able to name a judicial body that would oppose prohibition for the next twenty years."

YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE

The young people attending the meeting placed themselves on record as opposing theaters, dances and other places of amusement that "might be classed as questionable." In a series of resolutions adopted today, reading of wholesome literature also was promoted by the young people, and it was urged that they go into the discard, as well as slang and expressions that may be classed as "cheap." Passage of the resolution was accompanied by a motion that it be made a proclamation to the young people of the world and that others be asked to join in the reform movement.

Engine Whistle Causes Horse to Create Wrecks

ONTARIO, Aug. 9.—When a locomotive screamed a whistle blast for the station here it was the cause for damaging a telephone pole and knocking the wheels off an automobile. The whistle shrieked. A horse hitched to a wagon made a quick dash for another street. C. L. Wells, Los Angeles, was driving an automobile along the same street on which the horse had been standing. The horse turned right into the path of the approaching automobile. Rather than plow into the animal, Wells chose a telephone pole and drove his car into it. The machine was badly damaged. Wells was bruised.

TRUCK AND AUTOMOBILE CRASH IN SOFT-DRINK STAND

ONTARIO, Aug. 9.—Pitching a ride on the rear end of an ice delivery truck was given as the reason why the truck and an automobile ran into a soft-drink stand at East A street today, injuring Miss Ethlyn Palmer, dispenser of soft drinks, within the stand. The boy, Robert Preston, grabbed a ride on the rear of the ice truck driven by J. P. Horn. The driver, unaware of the boy, swung his truck to the soft-drink stand to stop. Preston was thrown from the truck and directly in the path of an automobile driven by R. Chambers. Rather than strike the boy, Chambers guided his automobile into the side of the truck and the two heavy machines crashed into the stand.

GIRL BADLY INJURED IN PARACHUTE

After Falling 1400 Feet,
Device Opens Less Than 100 Feet from Ground

SANTA MARIA, Aug. 9.—Marion Hotchkiss, 22-year-old waitress, is in the Santa Maria Hospital with little chance to live as a result of a parachute drop this afternoon when the parachute failed to open until she was within 100 feet of the ground. Miss Hotchkiss, who had never before attempted a parachute drop, took off with Pilot G. W. Gilpin at the Santa Maria Valley Fair late this afternoon, and at an elevation of 1500 feet dropped from the plane. For some unknown reason she was unable to pull the cord which released the parachute until she was less than 100 feet from the ground, and she struck heavily.

Horried spectators rushed to her assistance, and took her to the hospital, where it was found that she was suffering from concussion of the brain and injured spine.

NEW INDUSTRY SOON TO OPEN IN VAN NUYS

VAN NUYS, Aug. 9.—More than 200 persons will be employed when the Menzel Manufacturing Company plant, opens here. The installation of machinery has started and officials state production will begin shortly. The machinery being installed was sent from the East and is valued at $40,000. Product of the plant is sold to railroads and mining corporations.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED

In addition to prizes awarded the girls for their costumes, Miss Hamilton conducted a personality contest with Miss West Covina, Christel Levine, as the charming winner. Miss Alhambra, Lyndall Gitt, walked away with honors in both sports and evening costumes, and Miss Monrovia, Lillian Ridenour.

NEW AIRPORT READY SOON

Field in San Fernando Valley to be Available Next Month With Many Factories Contracting Space

VAN NUYS, Aug. 9.—The Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport of 381 acres, at Baticoy street and Woodley avenue, will open and be ready for business late in September, it is announced by the promoters, Heffron, McCray and St. John. St. John states that twenty-four manufacturing concerns with businesses related to the making of airplanes and their accessories have made site reservations at the airport and that many others are negotiating for locations.

Waldo M. Waterman, manager, states that he believes within five years a force of 5000 to 8000 men may be employed on the location. One of the first plants to be erected on the airport will be that of the Bach Aircraft Company. Officials of the Bach company state the concern has orders ahead sufficient to keep the plant busy for a year or more. Each lessee at the airport

BREAKFASTEERS ENTERTAIN

Foothill Club Inaugurates Ladies' Morning With Fashion Show Heading Long List of Attractions

ARCADIA, Aug. 9.—"Ladies' Morning," observed by members of the Foothill Breakfast Club at their weekly breakfast this morning, proved a main affair with some 200-odd seated at tables arranged in an inviting chapel of oaks to the north of the clubhouse and plunge on Santa Anita avenue.

In celebration of the early-morning event which especially honored wives, sweethearts and other guests, the club sponsored a fashion revue, the nine pretty maids representing various cities of the San Gabriel Valley, as the models. Directing the show was a committee of three: Walter A. Galley, Allan Bixby and Howard Voss.

FILM FAVORITES ASSIST

The models were accompanied by five motion-picture beauties, June Marlowe, Jane Lurell, formerly known as Helen Cox, but who recently changed her name for her picture career, as was explained by Miss Hamilton while introducing the girls; Mary McAllister, Blanche McHaffey and Joy Auburn, served as judges.

Miss Hamilton and the picture players, arriving late, held the center of attraction throughout the program. Miss Hamilton was charmingly attired in an ensemble costume of blue, which was in perfect harmony with the bright sports outfits of the other judges.

NEW OFFICERS PRESENT

Another highlight of the program was the constant flow of witty remarks made by Clyde Young, newly elected president of the club, who, with other officers of the new cabinet, was present in his capacities for the first time this morning, since his election two weeks ago.

"The fellows put on a better show than I expected," Young said at the climax of the program, and announced that from now on the club will have the ladies as guests every two weeks.

Such distinguished people of the Southland as Judge Daily Stafford, Gordon Whitnall of the Los Angeles City Planning Commission; William J. Fox, director of the Los Angeles Regional Planning Commission; Emerson D. Hall and Col. R. E. Frith, were seen about the breakfast tables.

Lehrbach to Devote Himself to Personal Work

Plea Made for ex-Official to Be Kept on Staff

PASADENA, Aug. 9.—Henry G. Lehrbach, business manager of the city school system and secretary of the Board of Education for the last four years, submitted his resignation to the trustees tonight. He stated that he decided to resign in order to devote his entire time to other business interests.

Superintendent J. A. Saxon declared that Lehrbach's knowledge of the business management of the school system would make it advisable to keep him on the school pay roll in an advisory capacity until the superintendent or some one else may have had an opportunity to familiarize himself with the school district's business.

One of the factors said to have resulted in Lehrbach's resignation is said to have been the decision of the Board of Education to place the business as well as the academic administration of Pasadena schools in the hands of Supt. Saxon. During the last two years the two departments were under two executives with virtually equal power.

This is the reason, McFarland was walking along Fifth avenue last night and met Police Sergeant Fred Parrott, who was on his way home in plain clothes. The sailor told the officer he looked like a nice fellow and ought to have a little drink. The producer of the bottle and Parrott called the wagon.

ASSERTED BRIBERY MEN HELD

Judge Refuses to Reduce Bail or Dismiss Case of Caronna and Marple

VENTURA, Aug. 9.—Judge Malvern Dimmick held Charlie Caronna and Lee Marple to answer in the Superior Court and refused to dismiss the case or reduce the bail of $10,000 each, under which the two men, who are charged with attempting to bribe Sheriff Robert Clark, are held at the County Jail, when the men and their attorneys appeared before him for a preliminary hearing.

Sheriff Clark was the first witness called and outlined the conversations he had with Marple leading up to and including the attempted bribery. He related how Marple, wearing a deputy sheriff's badge and carrying a shotgun, introduced from Sheriff William Shays of San Bernardino county, appeared at his office July 27 and told him that he was opening a bail-bonding office in Santa Barbara. Later he told him, the Sheriff said, that what he really wanted to see about was the starting of a still in this county and the operation of two roadhouses on Ventura avenue.

Johnny Lamar and Hoppe Headline Card at Hollywood Tonight

AMERICAN BOXER FACES VETERAN

Johnny Lamar, who has taken the measure of Mushy Callahan, the junior welterweight champion, Johnny Lamar seems destined to take the place in the hearts of Mexicans formerly occupied by Bert Colima. Lamar fights Dick Hoppe in the main event at the Hollywood Legion Stadium tonight.

Legion Wants Tunney's Aid to Save Game

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 9. (AP) Gene Tunney, retired world heavyweight boxing champion, will be asked to come to California and "stamp" for the State Athletic Commission law, against which an initiative repeal measure has been filed. W. H. Hanlon, Sacramento member of the State Boxing Commission, has made such a suggestion to American Legionnaires and they are preparing to forward the plea to the former champion.

time he turns around he isn't grabbing space like some of the boxers in the public eye, but it is still a good fighter and it is doubtful whether or not the Mexican can beat him as he has some of his opponents, namely Jackie Carr and Sammy Oeffman. Hoppe may enter the ring a favorite.

This last sport made by Lamar has some of the boys cheering. They don't know how long it will last but they do say if Lamar gets over Hoppe he is destined to remain at the top for some time. Mexican fighters don't come to the front very rapidly. There are enough of them in the racket but they don't get anywhere. Bert Colima has had things his own way for years around Los Angeles. The Colima star is just about to be supplanted by another and it looks very much as though Johnny Lamar will be the lad.

Lamar and Hoppe are rivals of long standing. Hoppe has always been the upper hand, but it looks as though conditions have changed and from the cockiness of the Mexican one can't help but believe he'll cop. Mexicans are good from runners in the fighting racket. They don't come from behind very often to win but should one make a good getaway he is hard to head off. Lamar seems to have gained confidence by beating some good boys. He knows Hoppe isn't quite as good as he once was but still is a cagey and dangerous to fight with in a fisty way.

The fans can't be very much disappointed with the Hollywood show. It is a large evening's entertainment that is wrapped up in the five rings. The main event should go the limit and be close at the finish.

A couple of sockers will trot out for the semi-wind-up. Tom Moore has fought his way up the ladder in the preliminaries and he hopes to win a couple of good shots in the "semi" and then hop, step and jump into the main-event class. Bobby Evans, a Vancouver fighter, has made his debut. Moore on past performances should be made the favorite.

Indians in 4-2 Win Over Oaks

SEATTLE, Aug. 9. (AP)—Chick Ellsworth stole the show for Seattle by knocking a homer in the first inning and making a single in the second with the bases full and scoring two. Seattle won, 4 to 2. Dumovich of Oakland was hit by a pitch in the second and McAvoy, who replaced him, held Seattle to two hits the rest of the game. The score:

Senators Win Over Beavers

PORTLAND, Aug. 9. (AP)—The Senators made it three straight over Portland by winning today's game, 6 to 2. The league leaders got to the Cardinals tonight, which saved the lead of the Red Birds over the Giants to four games.

Frank Frisch wanted a home run with one on in the seventh, bringing the score to its final status, but the Cardinals fought to the end and Taylor doubled with two out in the ninth, but Burleigh Grimes hit the aid of Carman Hill and caused Holm to roll to Adams, who made a fine stop. The Pirates greeted the Cardinals with a shower of three runs in the first, and forced him to retire in favor of Arthur Reinhart with none out in the fourth after two more markers had been added or placed on base. The victory gave the Pirates a record of twenty-four games won in their last thirty-one.

Pirates Trample on St. Louis for 5-4 Victory

BOSTON, Aug. 9. (AP)—Fred Heilmach, St. Paul recruit, held the Red Sox to four hits in his debut as a Yankee this afternoon. While the champions pounded Ed Morris and Burney Griffin for a 7-to-1 victory. This success enabled the Yankees to cling to their lead of four and one-half games, as the Athletics also won.

The lone Boston run came in the first inning on two passes, Ken Williams' single and Regan's sacrifice fly. Every New York run was made in the sixth when Morris was knocked out of the box with some out. Combs led off the big inning with a triple. Other innings were won by Gerber, passes to Ruth and Durocher, singles by Gehrig and Koenig, and Morris' double to right, made by accident as he ducked back from a close pitch.

The Athletics was with the Athletics and the Red Sox before going to St. Paul two years ago. He fanned eight men today and walked only two.

Senators Win Over Beavers

PORTLAND, Aug. 9. (AP)—The Senators made it three straight over Portland by winning today's game, 6 to 2. The league leaders got to the Cardinals tonight, which saved the lead of the Red Birds over the Giants to four games.

Frank Frisch wanted a home run with one on in the seventh, bringing the score to its final status, but the Cardinals fought to the end and Taylor doubled with two out in the ninth, but Burleigh Grimes hit the aid of Carman Hill and caused Holm to roll to Adams, who made a fine stop. The Pirates greeted the Cardinals with a shower of three runs in the first, and forced him to retire in favor of Arthur Reinhart with none out in the fourth after two more markers had been added or placed on base. The victory gave the Pirates a record of twenty-four games won in their last thirty-one.

Records were set today in the 1600-meter race. The record was set by the team consisting of: John Hodgson, of the University of California; Walter Colwell, of the University of California; and John Hodgson, of the University of California.

FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY

Taylor Ready to Sing Swan Song—Maybe

Bud Taylor, former bantamweight champ of twenty-seven States, has fought his last fight—almost.

"One or two more and I'm through," the famous scrapper told Dr. William E. Balsinger, surgeon who is rehabilitating the pugilistic countenance which was so badly disarranged recently by Santiago Indiano, incident to the professional difference of opinion between him and Bud in San Francisco.

One of the "one or two more" was fought with Fidel La Barba here and on a date yet to be determined. However, it will be the very last fight he will make, as he will be two months yet before the new nose, which Dr. Balsinger will start to make next week for Bud will be finished and "set."

If the fight is sooner it will be because Bud will let it wage the battle with his boxer still the ruin it was left by Zorrilla. The nose is yet so swollen from the San Francisco fight that it has been found impossible to work up on it for several days yet.

Tuesday, Bud submitted to surgery, which restored his battered-in left brow, reduced to normalcy the traumatic (cauliflower) condition of his right ear and patched up his lips.

AUSTRALIAN IN TOURNEY

SOUTHAMPTON (N. Y.) Aug. 9

ATHLETICS WIN

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9. (AP)—The Athletics maintained their rapid pace in the pennant race here today when they defeated the Senators, 8 to 3, in the first Philadelphia home game since the victorious sweep of the Mackmen through the West. The Athletics failed to gain as the Yankees defeated the Red Sox at Boston, 7 to 1.

THE reason so few political converts are made by eloquent orators and earnest neighborhood oracles is that they will persist in arguing.

The average political arguer is very convincing. He convinces you that however wrong your side may be you don't want to be on the same side with that ass.

Before he started to argue, you may have been on the point of embracing the ideas he advocates. But after he has grown eloquent about them and fallen in love with the sound of his own logic you can't help feeling rebellious again.

People used to say wars never settled anything. Now we say wars never get settled for. But it's a cinch arguments never settle anything.

No matter what the facts are, whoever loses his temper loses the argument, so long as it's confined to words and ideas.

I've heard a lot of spellbinders, but they never changed me. They just hardened me in my obstinacy.

The only public speaker of prominence I ever heard of who won his hearers to his views was Socrates, who never asserted anything, but asked questions—very gently and courteously—which caused the ideas he wished expressed to form in the minds of his listeners.

Benjamin Franklin frankly copied his method and became the only great diplomat we ever sent abroad.

Yes, Palomine, when you want a man to think as you do, don't try to compel him. Just get him to study all the facts and do his own thinking.

Making Adjectives
"Some adjectives," said a school teacher, "are made from nouns, such as dangerous, meaning full of danger, and hazardous, full of hazard. Can any boy give me another example?"

"Yes, sir," replied a fat boy. "Please, full of pie!"—(Weekly Scotsman.)

Different Requirements
"How about your campaign funds?"
"Times have changed," answered Senator Borah. "I was once afraid it would be too small. Now I am afraid it will appear too large."—(Washington Star.)

Something New
Bathub salesman: I beg to call your attention to the unusual features of this tub, which is especially designed for those who sing while bathing. It has a new beauty and depth, a richer resonance; in other words, my dear sir, it's orthophonic.—(Life.)

New Complaint
The best dressed girl in this neighborhood remarked yesterday that one of her new skirts stays down so well after she has assumed a sitting posture that it makes her feel very conspicuous.—(Ohio State Journal.)

An Oversight
New Maid: Please, I've strained the soup, mum.
Mistress: That's right, Jane. Bring it in.
New Maid: I can't, mum. I forgot to put anything under the strainer!—(Kansas City Star.)

An Instalment Infant
"I have just paid the doctor another $15 on his bill," announced Harold as he entered his wife's room.
"Fine!" said the wife. "Just think; only three more payments and the baby is ours!"—(Kansas City Star.)

The Answer
Little John: Pa, I know why editors call themselves we.
Big John: Why?
Little John: So the man that doesn't like the article will think there are too many for him to lick.—(Forbes Magazine.)

EXCHANGE SEAT SALE MARK SET
Transfer at $90,000 Shows $5000 Increase
Secretary of Local Market Makes Announcement
Principals in Transaction Not Yet Disclosed

...of memberships of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange jumped yesterday with the announcement of a transfer of a seat at the new price of $90,000. The last transfer was made in July, 1933, when the price was $85,000. The new top price placed the Los Angeles Stock Exchange on a par with those of New York, Chicago, and San Francisco. The exchange, which has a membership of 1,200, is the only one in the country. It is expected that the new price will result in a valuation of the seventy-five seats at the exchange to be sold at the close of last year. The seats were sold at $85,000 and $135,000, respectively. The first of the year's seats have been sold at $100,000 and $125,000, respectively. The exchange is expected to be a success in the future. It is expected that the new price will result in a valuation of the seventy-five seats at the exchange to be sold at the close of last year. Milk Company Extends Chain

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9. (AP)—

The local office of the Golden State Milk Products Company announced today that the company had purchased the Gold Medal Dairy Company of Los Angeles, adding another link in its State-wide system.

The Golden State Company also announced that it received permission from the State Corporation Department to issue 7,733 shares of stock to its stockholders of record August 20, 1928, in the ratio of one new share to each five held then, at $1.25, and to sell and issue the unsubscribed portion of these shares at $1.75.

In addition, the company was permitted to issue to stockholders of the Los Angeles Creamery Company, 40,386 shares of Golden State stock in exchange for 14,838 shares of the Los Angeles company's stock.

Citizens National Warming House

Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank is celebrating today and tomorrow, with an all-day reception, the completion of extensive alterations and improvements at its head office, Spring street.

The changes have cost approximately $400,000 and provide the bank with needed space for enlargement of its facilities.

The structural alterations include new vaults and elevators, the erection of a mezzanine, complete remodeling of second and third floors and related alterations and improvements throughout the bank. The reconstruction was necessitated by the centralization of management and the growing consolidation of the Citizens National with Citizens Trust and Savings Bank.

Staff of Union Oil Buys Stock

Through a group provident fund Union Oil employees own stock in their company to the value of approximately $2,000,000, representing the collective investment of 8000 members of the organization, company officials announced yesterday.

The fund has now passed the $5,000,000 mark and is invested in various securities.

The fund was inaugurated by the company five years ago, and now has a membership of about 79 per cent of the 698 eligible employees.

It provides for pension, disability and death compensation, etc., and for every dollar deposited by an employee the company adds a similar amount.

TWO TONGUES ON LAST LEGS

Yiddish and Gaelic Appear to Be Dying

Debate Rages on Future of Jewish Dialect

Children of Immigrants Soon Adopt English.

BY FREDERICK J. HASKIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9. (Reuter)—There is a strong feeling in this country today of a controversy and an evolution of absorbing interest and profound importance. It has to do with the passing into the limbo of dead things of an ancient language which holds a place of prime importance and that is the very medium of exchange of thought, to the language.

Although the Bureau of Education has but little more than a passing interest in the phenomenon it is the subject of the most intense interest.

Two languages appear to be dying because of the overwhelming ascendancy of the English language. One of them is the Yiddish language. Yiddish is a colloquial language but one close to the hearts of many persons who speak it. It bears to the classic Hebrew a relation somewhat similar to that borne by modern Italian to classic Latin.

MOSTLY GERMAN

When Spain, in protest against the conquest of the Moors who finally were driven out by the Christians, and the Jews, the people of that race fled to Germany and, later, many of them found harbors in Poland. With the passage of the years they absorbed words of the languages of those countries. They were enriched upon their original tongue with the Yiddish language came into being, a sort of composite of several modes of expression.

It is considered as predominantly German, yet Polish strains are to be found in it as well as Russian. It stands a separate language.

In the eastern section of the United States, notably New York, a distinctly Jewish culture has sprung up. Newspapers are published in Yiddish in Philadelphia, as well as there is a certain Yiddish press in the city where even the street signs are lettered not in English but in Yiddish. The many Jewish children of immigrants, of Jewish persuasion who elect to produce their works in Yiddish rather than in English.

CHILDREN FORGET YIDDISH

One of the most recent statements to provoke controversy has been a statement by Michael R. Schuler, a noteworthy Jewish scholar and translator of Yiddish works. He declares that the Jews upon coming to America, and upon naturalization papers, regard Yiddish as a mark of inferiority and that the second generation, after immigration, forgets the old tongue and all its romantic and racial associations.

It would almost seem that his point is well taken. There does seem to be a conscious effort on the part of immigrants to turn to English as a relief and an opportunity. One of the most interesting indications of this is to be found in the proper names given the children of immigrants. The two outstanding names, to be found every day in newspapers, are clear windows, and elsewhere, are about the two most typically English names which could be selected for a child.

But Mr. Schuler does not have everything his own way in declaring that Yiddish is dying. Sol Bloom, a Representative in Congress from New York City, says Mr. Schuler gives a distorted picture of the situation. He says: "Yiddish is today a variation of German to some extent but it is not therefore a cheap variation, vulgarized.

Two Accused to Face Grand Jury Monday

Arrests Come as Climax to Long Investigation

Intricate business transactions involving more than $121,000, representing almost the entire fortune of Mrs. Frank E. Neumann, an aged invalid, were yesterday afternoon unrolled in the arrest of Samuel Wickersheimer, alias Wickersham, and John McEniry, on charges of grand larceny by trick and device.

The arrests came as a climax to six months of investigation by both the police department and the district attorney's office. Wickersheimer was taken into custody by Detective Lieutenant Frank James in the Beverly Hills Camden Drive home of Mabel Norman, which he rented from the film actress some months ago.

McEniry was arrested by George Costello, chief investigator of the district attorney's office, and Detective Nathan as he returned to his Hollywood apartment from an excursion to the Canadian border.

WILL FACE GRAND JURY Both of the prisoners will be taken before the grand jury next Monday after their victims have testified. Yesterday in lengthy statements, Mrs. Neumann and her widowed daughter, Mrs. Frances Pay, gave statements relating their intricate business transactions with Wickersheimer and McEniry to Chief Deputy District Attorney Kearney, who is personally conducting the case.

Art treasures, paintings, jewelry and a "million-dollar" gold mine near Glendale, Cal., together with a huge optical lens plant to be constructed somewhere in Southern California all had a part in the representations said to have been made by Wickersheimer. A holding corporation which eventually was planned to own a string of banks also came into the deal.

From the two women, however, authorities learned that night that a string of pearls for which Wickersheimer paid $3000, the purchase of a twenty-four-carat diamond, five paintings of argumentative value and a whole sheaf of signed promises to pay, together with an agreement to deliver within $100,000 worth of stock in the "million-dollar" Glendale gold mine, were all that they had to show for their money.

TRIED TO SELL PAINTINGS According to the account given by Mrs. Neumann and corroborated by her daughter, they met Wickersheimer through McEniry, who had been introduced to them by John S. Fisher, their financial adviser, in a Wilshire Boulevard studio where Mrs. Pay and Fisher had gone to view some paintings.

Immediately after the meeting Wickersheimer, they say, began his operations by attempting to sell some of his paintings. Through the efforts of McEniry a loan of $22,500 was obtained by Wickersheimer from the two women. McEniry, according to Wickersheimer and Fisher, was paid a 5 per cent commission on the deal. Wickersheimer secured the loan with first one of his paintings and later added four more. At still a later date the deal became further involved when a bill of sale was executed by Wickersheimer showing Fisher as the purchaser of the art, and the authorities yesterday made the astonishing discovery that none of the pictures had ever left Wickersheimer's possession.

STOCK TRANSFERRED The interrogation of Wickersheimer and McEniry, together with the statements of the two women further disclosed that the bill of sale now seems to be missing, having been given by Fisher to Wickersheimer's attorney, and, according to Fisher, by the attorney back to Wickersheimer.

After relating the virtues of the mine and telling them of some profits, a block of stock valued at more than $50,000 was transferred by Mrs. Neumann to Wickersheimer. This security was to be used by Wickersheimer, according to Mrs. Neumann, as collateral for the raising of funds with which to promote the mine. In return Wickersheimer promised to deliver a huge block of stock in the mine, and did deliver the pearl necklace.

McEniry, it developed in both Mrs. Neumann's and Mrs. Pay's statements, obtained a $3000 loan, a second block of stock valued at more than $30,000, and sundry smaller loans, which he told the women would all be used in the promotion of his corporation, and promises were made by him to issue stock in his promotion in return.

ALL OF THE DEALS BETWEEN Wickersheimer and McEniry and the two women, according to Chief Deputy District Attorney Murray, were so involved by written statements, promises to pay, notes and transfers of stock that weeks will be required to unravel the amazing financial transactions.

WICKERSHAM FRAUD INTENT Wickersheimer yesterday turned over to the authorities some of the transferred stock and promised to deliver today additional securities, together with a trust deed for $27,000 which he obtained from Mrs. Neumann, but had been unable to discount.

In a lengthy statement to the authorities Wickersheimer denied any intent to defraud Mrs. Neumann or her daughter and stoutly maintained that all of his transactions were open and above board. He declared that in the dealings, as a matter of fact, he had lost money.

McEniry refused to make any statement, following his apprehension, relative to his business deals, but declared that he had not violated the law.

Mrs. Neumann, who is 68 years of age and has been an invalid for the past forty years, had been attempting to establish a trust fund for a mentally diseased daughter and a second fund for Mrs. Pay and her son who lives in the East when she fell into the hands of Wickersheimer and McEniry. Last night she told the authorities that of all her original fortune only a meager amount now remains.

It became known last night that the police, under Chief of Detectives Cline and the district attorney's office, through Chief Investigator Contreras, have been investigating Wickersheimer's activities for the last six months. They say that it has been impossible to locate any traces of his lease factory, and that in so far as their investigations have gone no machinery or other equipment for the business has been discovered. The gold mine, according to the secretary of State, has not been incorporated in California.

Wickersham, as he calls himself, the authorities say, was known as Wickersheimer in Germany, and instead of being an officer in the Imperial German army, as his statement has been, was a corporal in a training battalion and later was a buyer of food and hides. The German authorities give him the reputation of a hectic career, which began after his army discharge, resulted in the organization and for a short time the success of a number of different corporations. His career, however, ended with the failure of all of his businesses, some difficulty with the police and his departure for the United States. He came to this country in 1924.

that they would have to devote all their time to keep from being swamped.

Then President Schweitzer returned from his vacation, with the result that the order was revoked yesterday.

Under the new system, or rather in the return to the old system of departmental investigation, the matter is taken out of the hands of the commission, unless the chief of charges wishes the matter gone into further. In such cases the commission as a whole will sit in session.

Chief Davis has contended from the start that charges against police officers should be handled within the department.

DEPOT 'TREATY' PLAN BATTLED

tended yesterday's meeting by invitation included Frank Kearney of the Southern Pacific; E. W. Camp of the Santa Fe and Fred Pettit of the Union Pacific. All of these have been active in the case relating the union depot orders. Each told of the litigation that is soon to center in the Supreme Court of the United States.

"I have an idea," said Vice-president Kearney of the Southern Pacific, "that if the Supreme Court upholds the union depot orders, the union depot will be built in the Plaza district, east of Alameda street and north of Macy street, the area designated in the Railroad Commission's last order. But the issue is an important one to railroads and people all over the United States as to whether commissions can order railroads to spend their money for a union depot."

Attorney Camp said that the Santa Fe does not care for the long delay as it desires to know whether it should build a new depot on the present site or use its money for a share of a union depot. All said that their railroads would be glad to confer at any time.

COMPROMISE BACKERS The proponents of the so-called "compromise" plan of the Union Terminal Committee were headed by President P. O. Tompkins of that organization who filed a resolution signed by several organizations asking the railroads and the city to end the union depot litigation by conciliation. Other speakers for this plan were W. L. Cummings, Herbert L. Goudge, president of the Municipal League, and J. H. Weir.

W. L. Cummings of the "Union Terminal Committee of 100," denied that the committee or any of its members is inspired by their present campaign by the railroads or that any of the committee is connected with the railroads. He said that the committee favors no particular site. President Goudge also denied that the Municipal League, which has been an active plaintiff in the grade crossing elimination-union terminal case for many years, had changed its position.

The chairman Webster thanked the speakers and the large audience, and said that he and other new members of the Council had been interested in learning the facts of the union depot case. He stated that if any more hearings are held notice would be given and the committee took the request for union depot compromise negotiations under advisement.

OLIVE BRANCH IN DYER ROW FAILS

Factions Can't Get Together and Trial Continues

Judge's Offer of Mediation Comes to Naught

Pastor Willing to Quit After Being Vindicated

Hopes for an amicable settlement of the factional fight in the Wilshire Boulevard Congregational Church, with the court battle that has been on for four weeks brought to an end, went glimmering yesterday, when litigation on both sides told Superior Judge Recker there is no chance of getting together.

Judge Recker intimated Wednesday he would do all he could within his judicial power to help the factions settle their differences and end the trial wherein efforts are being made to oust Dr. Frank Dyer from the pulpit and enjoin the board of trustees favorable to him from participating in the church affairs.

The anti-Dyer group offered to settle the fight peacefully if Dr. Dyer and both boards of trustees would step out.

The Dyer group was willing to settle if all the past members of the board of trustees and the officers returned to the fold and agreed to work and pull together henceforth.

Both offers fell by the wayside yesterday and the court fight went on with a possibility of its continuing over into next week.

Dr. Dyer went on the stand again yesterday.

FLUTTERING FRUIT AFOUL LAW

Healer Says Vibration of Prune, if Connected With Right Disease Wave Length, Will Cure, But Mother Says Patient Nearly Died

All fruit vibrates. All diseases vibrate. With this he tunes in on the patient's illness. The patient even does not have to be present for all that the doctor needs is a hair or a specimen of the sick one's handwriting.

When the doctor tunes in on the patient and finds out what vibrations his illness is emanating he then tunes in on a basket of fruit and finds out which fruit is giving off the same vibrations.

All that has to be done then is to feed the patient the kind of fruit that is sending the same vibrations as the disease. The fruit vibrations overcome those of the disease and the sick one is cured.

"Grapefruit, plums, prunes, apples and all other fruits give off different vibrations," Tibury explained and added: "So do diseases."

It was this method, as outlined above, Tibury used in the treatment of an infected ankle the Kershaw child had, according to the plaintiff.

The principle of the thing might have been all right but it didn't work in the case of little Jodeli Kershaw and she nearly lost her life, according to her mother, who is asking that the court compel Tibury to pay damages.

The hearing will continue today.

Happy thought! Chicago rum runner could be jailed for impersonating an officer.

Made friends are better than born ones.

Many women are charming, but only a few are clever.

No man would like to be mean as some people think he should.

Supply may be governed by demand, but you can always borrow trouble.

TO THE POINT

How blessed is the character skate who makes his character brief and straight, without a word of time, who knows you have a lot of time, and that to talk an hour or two is little short of crime. Some men can't get right down to facts, and they're selling sealing wax, books, or overcoats; before they try to make a sale they're going to tell a funny tale, to charm you and amuse.

And when the funny tale is told it finds you feeling grim and cold, and the salesman from your door, and tell him to return to his native land.

If he would live and thrive, he should come soliciting your business at a frightful speed of everything on earth. They must "lead" you to what they wish, and so a lot of bunk they dish, and you, who entertain, and you, who have your chores to do, with your spirit will complain. And when the subject explained and broomed, you promptly turn it down, and contribution you'd afford him, you not been so roundly browbeaten.

Men lose out every passing day because they haven't learned to say just what they're driving at. They must arrive by slow degrees, with weary legs, through wheeze, and I admire the jaunty jay who tells his earnest right away, who has no time to tell! I buy the thing he has for sale, I spend with him my treasured kale, I love him, praising well.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Forest Hayden of San Francisco to Wilson Okey Wade, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wade of 218 E. 14th, was solemnized Wednesday, the ceremony taking place in Berkeley in the Unitarian chapel at 11 o'clock in the morning. Only immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony and attended the wedding breakfast at the Hotel Whitehouse. The bride, Miss Hayden, was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Wade. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Mr. Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Yewell of San Antonio, Tex., came up for the wedding, as did also Miss Ann E. Macmillan from St. Augustine, Fla. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the hotel by a motorcade.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Morlan, Mrs. E. W. L. Franklin, Albert Franklin, Miss Elizabeth Franklin and Miss Helen Franklin of North Orange avenue, Hollywood, were also present.

Mr. Wade is an alumnus of the University of California and is assistant chemist in the United States civil service in San Francisco. His bride is a native Californian, her family having settled on the Russian River in the early days.

For Bride-Elect
Miss Evelyn Farnsworth is entertaining this afternoon with a bridge-ten and shower honoring Miss Ruth Pearsall, one of the popular brides-elect of the season. The affair will take place at the hotel in West Seventh street.

Miss Farnsworth will be assisted by Miss Lillian Drake Williams, sister of Miss Pearsall's fiancé, Douglas Williams, and the color scheme of the affair will be carried out in summer shades combined with fern and tulle, while the favors will carry out the bridal motif and the shower will be arranged in a large fancy box.

Those included will be Miss Ruth Pearsall, Mrs. Gilbert H. Pearsall, Mrs. Elizabeth Gawley, Mrs. E. B. Hughes, Miss Betty Richardson, Miss Marian Johnson, Miss Jane Woodin, Miss Martha Woodin, Miss Sue Betty Dunlap, Miss Roseanna Rose, Miss Mary Marshall, Miss Phyllis Marshall, Miss Patricia Thatcher, Miss Elizabeth Whitson, Miss Helen Clark, Miss Irma Clark, Mrs. Robert Casey, Mrs. Ben Clark and Mrs. F. E. Farnsworth.

Motorist North
Mrs. Sarah E. Smith and Mrs. L. I. Conger of Burlington, Va., and Mrs. South Alvarado street, where they passed the winter, are enjoying a delightful motor trip in the Northwest, stopping at the Hotel Vancouver in Spokane, Wash., on a trip to points on the Pacific Coast.

After going to Spokane they visited Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks.

Luncheon Party
Mrs. Mary J. Harrel of Chicago, who is stopping in Hollywood indefinitely, entertained Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon at the Montmartre in honor of Mrs. Robert D. Becker, Emerson Block, both from Chicago.

Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Block are touring the west coast and Alaska and the former expects to return to California in the spring accompanied by Mr. Becker, and make the Southland her permanent residence.

For Bride-Elect
Miss Lottie Cagle of Laurel avenue entertained recently at the Desauville Beach Club with a formal dinner party in honor of Miss Gloria Robertson, whose marriage to Homer James Specht will be an interesting event of early September.

The bride-elect has been widely entertained since the announcement of her engagement a few months ago at a delightful luncheon given at the Mary Louise Tea Room. The guests included Miss Gloria Robertson, Homer James Specht and Christy Robert Specht.

At the Mary Louise
Miss Nina B. Brown was hostess at a most charming afternoon bridge party Friday at the Mary Louise. Power-strewn tables struck a note of vivid beauty, while tea was served in the Rose Room. Miss Brown entertained in honor of her friends, including Misses Bea Anderson, Arnes "Blossie" Cramer, Olive Wood, Mercedes Foley and Misses Alice Lowry, Ethel Collins, both being honor guests who are attending the summer school at the University of California at Los Angeles; Grace Osborne, Mary V. Morris, Catherine Somers, Hazel Evert.

Miss V. Cloward entertained Thursday at the Mary Louise, with an attractively planned luncheon in honor of Mrs. Anna M. Bergeron. Luncheon was served in the main dining-room, where a beautiful fashion revue was in progress. Bowls of deep-toned asters with huge bunches of lilies offered a pleasing touch of vivacious color to the table. Other guests included Mrs. C.

DELIGHTFUL GUESTS LEAVING
Visitors Returning to Home in Denver

Mrs. Robert D. Hawley

M. R. AND MRS. ROBERT D. HAWLEY and their little son, Robert Cross Hawley, are returning to their home in Denver, Colo., after an extended stay on the coast.

Mrs. Hawley is the daughter of Hon. and Mrs. George H. Cross of Wyoming, and is the grand-daughter of the late Chief Justice Alexander Selkirk Cross of Montreal, Can.

The Democratic National Convention held in San Francisco in 1920 honored Mrs. Hawley in choosing her as Wyoming's first Democratic National Committeewoman. While in Los Angeles the Hawleys made their home at the new Langham.

with Johnny when he refuses to eat his vegetables and cereals and will only take his milk? He has always been a good eater, but now he seems to have lost his appetite? Or "Baby Louise always has taken every drop of her bottle formula, now she pushes it away after two or three swallow and won't take it unless urged."

Of course, Johnny and Louise are simply reacting to hot weather in the usual way. What adding an excessive appetite on hot days? Babies are quite as likely to show a temporary loss of appetite and it is a mistake to force food upon them. Try and keep the baby cool and quiet. Let him take only what he wants of his milk, or else dilute it with boiled water, so that he gets more water to drink and not so much food. Don't stuff him between feedings in your desire to make up for the loss of his feeding.

Under this treatment his appetite will come back naturally, forced to eat he may actually be made ill. The older child should be treated in the same way. Cater to his whims. He isn't being mean and not making a reality of his feeding against food and if humored will recover his appetite. Offer him fresh fruit juices to sip through a straw. He will be tempted by this and fruit juices are cooling, as well as natural appetizers.

The mother who coaxes, scolds and forces food on a child who hasn't the least desire for it, is going to set up an antagonism for those foods which the child may take months to overcome. These foods become distasteful to him because they were eaten when he didn't want them. In this case I am not talking about the child who has a lot of notions about foods and refuses them all. I am talking about the child who has a temporary distaste for something when his natural appetite is ruined by the heat.

Loss of appetite can be attributed at this time of year to heat, perhaps to the coming of teeth, perhaps to general overfeeding. In each of these cases it is best to feed the child lightly for a few days or a week until his indigestion is over and his appetite is flourishing.

DO NOT FORCE CHILDREN TO EAT IN HOT WEATHER
Every season brings its own problems and this is always made particularly noticeable in the department by the similarity of the question. Right now the universal question seems to be, "What shall I do

MAKE-UP enhances beauty. It does not create beauty. Beneath the artful touch of rouge, the smoothly dusted powder, must lie a naturally lovely skin. To keep that skin lovely, always remove make-up according to this universally recommended rule.

Every night, before going to bed, massage your face and throat with a creamy lather of Palmolive Soap. Use your two hands. The palm and olive oils, delicately blended in the rich lather, act as a lubricant in the fine texture of the skin. They reach the true skin, that important and constantly renewed secondary layer. They penetrate tiny pores that are otherwise apt to clog with dust, make-up, oil secretions. They prevent blackheads and skin afflictions.

After the soap massage, rinse with cool water graduated to cold. Dry with a soft towel by patting, not rubbing. Then (and then only) are you ready for make-up.

"WHOLEWHEAT-RAISIN MUFFINS"
To a well beaten egg add one cupful of sweet milk. Stir in one cupful of whole wheat flour and beat until smooth, then add a half cupful of the whole wheat flour into other sections of mixture. Add a spoonful of baking powder. Next add a half cupful of seedless raisins which have been slightly floured. Mix thoroughly and bake in muffin tins in a moderately hot oven until brown. The quantity makes about eight muffins.

TONGUE HAM
Cook two-thirds of a cupful of washed rice in three cupfuls of boiling meat stock until tender, drain well and line six buttered ramekins with it. Mix two cupfuls of chopped cooked ham with half a cupful of chopped onion, four tablespoons of white sauce, one tablespoon of pimiento, two tablespoons of chopped parsley, half a cupful of diced cooked string beans, the well beaten yolks of two eggs, a seasoning of salt and paprika and the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Fill the rice lined ramekins with the meat mixture; set in a pan of hot water, cover and set in the oven for twenty-five minutes. Unmold on hot plates and serve with tomato sauce.

RUSSIAN DRESSING
Rub a cold bowl with a crushed clove of garlic, remove the garlic and mix in it one cupful of mayonnaise, two tablespoons of chili sauce, one tablespoon of minced chives, two tablespoons of finely chopped ripe olives, and two tablespoons of chopped pimientos.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Neat and tidy more than ever before, as to keep her bureau drawers for her various pins, ribbons, hairbrushes, etc. We women have many trinkets to attempt to keep them unsorted.

Just a Reminder
An electric iron by itself is not a nest in connection with a switch, it is apt to be a switch that burns down one's house.

Dry Fashions
Stockings and socks will dry more quickly if after washing, they are wrung out and then hung through them all the way to the toe and thoroughly dry them.

Soft Dressers
When converting a dressmaker's place of soft underwear into a dresser or cleaning cloth, be sure buttons and hooks and eyes are off and avoid nasty scratches on floors and furniture.

Don't Break the Plaster
Don't try to drive nails into plaster walls and expect a neat crack or break the plaster. A sure way will hang just as well as a small screw as on a nail.

HICKMAN NEARS GALLOWAY TRYST

Slayer Resentenced to Hang on October 19

Sole Hope of Longer Life Rests in Appeal

Attorneys Plan Effort in Supreme Court

Unless his attorneys succeed in carrying their appeal to the United States Supreme Court, William Edward Hickman, convicted slayer and kidnaper of Marion Parker, will be hanged in San Quentin prison October 19, next, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The fate of the youthful slayer was sealed yesterday by Presiding Judge Edmunds of the criminal division of the Superior Court when he resented Hickman to death following official notice that the California State Supreme Court had denied his appeal.

EMPTY BENCHES
The courtroom, crowded to capacity when Hickman was sentenced, was virtually vacant when Judge Edmunds pronounced sentence. A few minutes before it had been packed with curious persons gathered to witness the arraignment of Leo P. Kelly, charged with the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Melius.

Hickman originally was sentenced to be hanged on April 27, last, but this date passed while the defendant's appeals were pending.

Even yesterday Richard Cantillon, attorney for Hickman, fought to evade the death penalty by presenting nine objections to the resentence. All were overruled.

DEFENSE OBJECTIONS
The objections, in substance, contended that the new State law under which Hickman pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity is unconstitutional.

In supporting this contention the defense attempted to show that Hickman never pleaded guilty to charges of murder and kidnapping, but only to insanity, that, consequently, he was deprived of the right to a trial by jury, and that, therefore, the new California law is unconstitutional.

When brought to trial Hickman based his defense upon a plea of insanity. Under the new State law this was considered an admission of guilt of the crime charged, but demands insanity should be the defendant really be found to be insane. As a result, Hickman's trial was ordered a hearing as to his mental condition.

STORY OF CRIME
Hickman, through a ruse, kidnaped Marion Parker from school, December 1914, last. For several days he held her in his apartment while he endeavored to collect $1000 ransom from Perry C. Parker, the father. Finally Hickman delivered the mutilated body of the girl to the father after receiving the $1000 and fled to California only to be captured at Bohn, Or.

According to Hickman's attorney, Cantillon, permission will be sought to carry the appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

HICKMAN NEARS FATE BUT SHOWS NO EMOTION
SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 9. (Exchange)—Informed by Warden Holman that he had been resented to hang on October 19 for the mutilation and murder of Marion Parker, William Edward Hickman said: "Resentenced; well, that's what I expected."

As the warden turned from the door of the cell Hickman picked up a magazine and began to read.

SETTLING OF $35,000,000 FUND ASKED

Petition for Distribution of Mrs. Huntington Estate Filed in Court Here

Final distribution of the residue of the $35,000,000 estate of the late Arabella D. Huntington is sought in a petition filed yesterday with Judge Berkeley of Probate Court by Archer M. Huntington of New York, son of the decedent and principal beneficiary of her will.

That part of the estate located in California, and consisting principally of property in Los Angeles and San Luis Obispo counties, has been appraised at $17,222,642, the petition recites. The petition shows that $17,222,642 of the estate has been accounted for in New York, a balance of almost $4,000,000 being transferred to Los Angeles.

The petition states that all claims against the estate have been settled, including an inheritance tax of $1,568,577. The petition will come before Judge Stephens for approval in September.

One Eye and Ear Worth $15,000

A jury in the court of Superior Judge McLucas values an eye and an ear at $15,000. At least this was the verdict yesterday in the $50,000 damage suit brought by Martin Vertson against the city of Los Angeles.

Vertson asserted that while working for the city on a storm drain a light wire fell and struck him across the face and the chin, putting out the sight of his eye and burning off an ear.

The jury found the wire belonged to the city and held the city liable.

Reform Blamed for Broken Home

Joseph Stanfield went his time and money trying to reform the world and was so busy he neglected his family, according to Mrs. Sophie Stanfield, who appeared before Superior Judge Yankwich yesterday asking divorce.

"My husband was a Socialist," Stanfield testified. "He insisted we live on $4 a week. He wouldn't furnish a doctor when I was sick."

Boss Finds Burglar Cache
Joe Chert, owner of Boss, the detective goose, and plate of jewelry the fowl discovered.

THE newest member of the local detective force is Boss, a 3-year-old Chinese goose. Boss comes by his laurels through achievement. It is a self-made goose, dependent on no one but itself for its position of honor in the world.

Yesterday morning, with belling modesty, Boss delivered to his owner, Joe Chert, 108 South Grand avenue, the result of his first detective job—a gold cross set with a score of pearls, an expensive watch, two rings and lesser jewelry. Investigation developed that Boss had unearthed them by digging near Chert's back door.

Apparently a burglar cache, the valuable jewelry gives evidence of having been buried many years. Several of the pieces are engraved with the name Dorothy Blanchard and D.B. Mr. Chert is holding them in the hope that she owner will be found and the whole story of the jewelry's long burial revealed.

NATIONALIST IDEALS FOR INDIA TOLD
Young Mohammedan Says Absolute Independence Dream of Countrymen

"United development of India under combined leadership of Mohammedan and Hindu interests with absolute independence is the objective of the Nationalist movement in India," said M. M. Khan at the Clark yesterday. The young Mohammedan has completed his law study in London and is on his way home to Durrat to devote his life to the Indian Nationalist conference.

"Education is the basic solution of all troubles in India," he continued. "The British government is spending revenue on its army and an average of 4 cents per capita toward education."

The Nationalist movement in India is not unlike the Nationalist movement in China, each having unity of action and leadership under the republicans as the ultimate object. Patience will be exercised and we aim to attain our freedom by peaceful means."

Aviation Will Make Fur Fly, Says Londoner
"Development of aviation is to have a far-reaching effect on the fur business," said Philip B. Berliner of London at the Alexandria yesterday. He is a member of the firm of Harold B. Berliner, one of the leading furriers and skin merchants of England.

"Fur coats and the adaptation of fur in attire worn by the wealthier men and women of the world are destined to use air channels as a major means of transportation will come as a rapid development. Ultimately the longer trips will be made at higher altitudes and will be crowded up by the increased short flight business. Some day the use of the trails by the public will show the need of further extension of trails in the park."

Switzerland is considering New Zealand as a land of migration, and has sent a representative to investigate.

Crowd Watches Transferring of Dirigible Hull
With 200 aircraft enthusiasts as spectators the work of moving the hull of the dirigible City of Glendale from the construction hangar to the service hangar was begun yesterday at Glendale Airport. Within the next month the hull will be attached to the forty-passenger "Gondola," now under construction, and a crew of five men is expected to take the ship on her maiden voyage some time in September.

Thomas Benton Slate is the inventor of the new all-metal dirigible which is said to revolutionize aerial transportation.

Yes, Weather Was Warmer, but Not Much
It was hotter in Los Angeles yesterday than usual, but only by 3 deg., according to officials of the United States Weather Bureau. The mercury touched 81 deg. at noon, with a relative humidity of 49, which gave a sweltering Angelinos a fair break. The record temperature for this city in August, observers said, is 100, which was registered so long ago that the exact date is covered with dust and cobwebs. The average, year in and year out, for this month is around the 80 mark. The forecast for today is fair with moderate temperature.

TWO GIRLS MISSING AFTER SEEKING JOBS
Police have been asked to assist in a search for Virginia and Ruth Smith of 2626 Homer street who disappeared from their home Wednesday about 9 a.m. ostensibly to visit some employment agency to obtain work as telephone operators. The mother reports they have not returned. Ruth is 18 years of age, is five feet seven inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has brown hair and brown eyes, and was wearing a white linen dress with green trimmings and half hose. Virginia is a year older, is five feet, five inches in height, weighs 116 pounds, has black hair and brown eyes, and was dressed in a white linen dress with red trimmings and half hose. Both wore black shoes.

More than 278,000 pounds of fish were brought into the United States last year.

Big Pines Camp a Vacation Paradise for Thousands of Boy Scouts

Thousands of Boy Scouts are annually offered every type of mountain sports during a happy healthful vacation at Big Pines Camp maintained by the county in the San Bernardino Mountains. Last year 8000 of the youngsters took advantage of the opportunity and the number will probably be even greater this year. The county is now adding improvements in the form of housing and feeding facilities. At left above is shown Jackson Lake in the park; at right, two Boy Scouts preparing a meal in the open.

The Massacre at Balangiga (Part Three).

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON SEPTEMBER 24, 1901, THE SOLDIERS OF THE LITTLE GARRISON AT BALANGIGA WERE AT BREAKFAST, NOT SUSPECTING TREACHERY, WHEN SUDDENLY AND WITHOUT WARNING THEY WERE ATTACKED BY A MOB OF FILIPINOS. THE SENTRY WERE CUT DOWN, AND ALMOST BEFORE THE STARTLED SOLDIERS REALIZED WHAT WAS TAKING PLACE, THE GREATER PART OF THE GARRISON HAD BEEN MURDERED.

AT THE TOLLING OF THE CHURCH BELL, THE FATAL SIGNAL, A BAND OF BOLICHES, THAT HAD BEEN HIDDEN IN THE CHURCH, POURED INTO THE OFFICERS' QUARTERS AND KILLED MAJOR GRISWOLD, CAPTAIN CONNELL AND LEUTENANT BUMPUS, LEAVING THE AMERICANS WITHOUT A LEADER.

BESET ON ALL SIDES BY YELLING SAVAGES, BRANDISHING BOLDS, THE AMERICANS WHO HAD SURVIVED THE FIRST MURDEROUS ONSLAUGHT OF THE NATIVES FOUGHT THEIR WAY IN LITTLE GROUPS OF THREE AND FOUR TOWARD THE MAIN BARRACKS WHERE THE RIFLES WERE STACKED. WITH THE COURAGE BORN OF DESPERATION, THE AMERICANS, THEIR GUNPOWDER BLINDING, MOST OF THEIR FEET BURNED BY SEVERE WOUNDS, BROKE THROUGH THE WALL OF FLASHING STEEL THEY HAD BEEN TRYING TO HOLD, AND TOOK POSSESSION OF THE BARRACKS. YONDER—THE BARRACKS AT BALANGIGA.

Child Admits He Lied in
First Version of How He Was Kidnaped from Home

Admitting that he had not told the truth about the circumstances of his kidnaping from his mother's home in Los Angeles last March, Walter Collins, 9 years of age, yesterday related a new version of the story, according to a dispatch from De Kalb, Ill., where he was found after a search of nearly five months. He will be returned to his mother in this city.

In his original story, shortly after he was released from his abductor, the boy said he was stolen from a Catholic school. He now declares that he lied because he was threatened with death if he told his mother he had been kidnaped or reveals his identity. The kidnaping, it has been established, is an ex-convict who did it to satisfy a prison grudge against the boy's father.

The youngster changed his story after having received a telegram from his mother, announcing that she will send for him at once. Police are conducting an intensive search for the kidnaper, who is said to have been seen near De Kalb about two weeks ago.

Burglary Methods

Operations of a Fagin who initiated others into the secrets of thievery and banditry were checked yesterday, police believe, with the arrest of Leo J. Campos, 31 years of age, of 1004 Colton street, on a charge of suspicion of burglary.

With him was arrested Dan Aimer, 19, who was booked on the same charge. Two days ago the third in the asserted trio, Nick Prontuco, 19, was arrested on a Wright Act charge. Yesterday an additional charge of suspicion of burglary was placed against him. All lived at the Colton-street address.

Detective Lieutenant Appleton and Brinkerhoff state that Campos instructed the others in the manner of burglaries and how to use burglar tools and pass-keys. They say the trio on June 2 broke into a tailor shop owned by George Alexander at 203 West Fifth street and stole a quantity of clothing. Later they took $500 worth of costumes from a cleaning establishment, police assert.

Voters' League
Mass Meeting
Backs Hoover

Members of the Incorporated Voters' League held a mass meeting yesterday to endorse the candidacy of Herbert Hoover and Senator Curtis last night at the Wadsworth school auditorium, 1835 East Thirty-eighth street.

The object of the voters' league, it was said in a program announcement, "is to promote the best interests of the voters of the city, county and state. We hereby pledge our support to all voters, whether they be members of the city, county, state and nation."

A delegation was appointed to attend the Hoover nomination acceptance exercises at Palo Alto.

Shaw Suggests
Rejection for Street Protest

City Engineer Shaw yesterday recommended to the City Council that protests be denied as filed against the proposed widening of First street from San Pedro street to Santa Fe avenue.

Traffic conditions require the widening of First street, through the central part of the city, City Engineer Shaw said, and the section protesting an integral part of the general widening plan. The new street lines have now been established on First street from Spring street to Main street at the south end of the City Hall grounds.

In the past year the number of passenger automobiles in the world has increased by nearly 1,700,000.

Pronounced the possessor of a 100 per cent perfect back, Ruth Hurschler, 19 years of age, 100 California street, Walnut Park, yesterday carried off the first prize in the National Progressive Chiropractic Association's annual perfect-back contest at the Los Angeles College of Chiropractic.

Miss Hurschler, who has competed on two previous years in the same event and last year won second, said she had spent much time since last year in following scientific principles of back development to put her in shape for the event. Chiropractors from far and near expressed amazement over the contours and fundamental of Miss Hurschler's shoulders and declared her the possessor of a nearly perfect a vertebrae as it is possible for humanity to obtain.

The judging board, headed by Dr. Charles H. Wood as general chairman, voted almost unanimously for Miss Hurschler. Two of the board favored Iris Adrian, 1528 North Serrano avenue, who accordingly was presented second prize. The two girls were the only ones considered in the final judging, after 250 entrants had been eliminated to fifty for the final.

Prizes will be awarded at Venice Sunday, when a perfect-back beauty parade of almost all contestants will be held.

Many minor surgical operations, including some tonsilectomies, are scheduled for today at the convention. The meet will run until tomorrow night, with a health baby contest scheduled for Sunday morning. The school's alumni association will hold its annual meeting tomorrow evening.

of Tourists' Value

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
SANTA MONICA, Aug. 9.—The value of community advertising to the growth of such centers as Santa Monica was stressed strongly by Don Thomas, executive secretary of the All-Year Club of Southern California, at a largely attended dinner of business and professional men of the Bay District in the Miramar Hotel tonight. The dinner was given under joint auspices of the Greater Santa Monica Club, the Santa Monica-Ocean Park Chamber of Commerce and the Santa Monica Bay District Realty Board.

Last year tourists spent in Southern California $100,000,000, said Mr. Thomas, "but this in reality is only a small portion of the great sums spent by Americans here."

In 1919, for instance, American tourists spent $179,000,000 in Europe and in 1927 they spent $778,000,000 there. In other words, the money spent by American tourists in Europe is going a long way toward paying the European war debt to the United States.

"The All-Year Club of Southern California is endeavoring to tell many of the European travelers that there are sights just as well worth seeing in Southern California, and while it seeks thus to bring the tourist to Southern California, it remains for the individual community, with its advertising, to bring the tourist to its location."

Announcement was made by Edward B. Connel that the Greater Santa Monica Club will raise this year $15,000 for community advertising. Five thousand dollars of this sum already has been contributed by the city of Santa Monica, he said, and the remainder will be raised through individual and group contributions.

Two hundred persons attended the dinner. Among a long list of speakers were M. C. McKenney, secretary of the Santa Monica Bay District Recreational Harbor Association; Rex Teale, T. A. Johnson, W. W. Bennett, Fred D. Gibbs, T. M. Perry, Sam Cox and Mayor Michel.

FIVE STATES TO REVEL

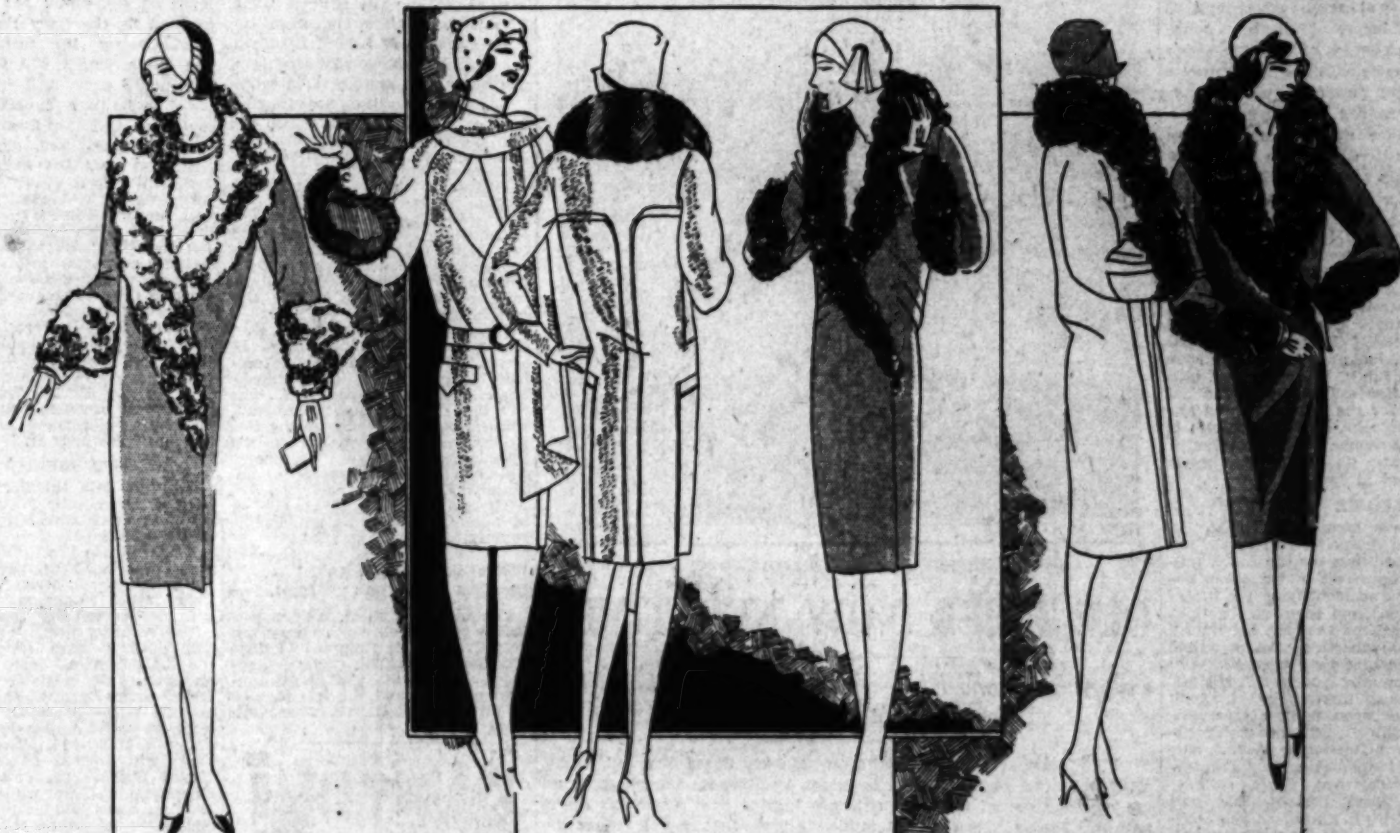

The Five Gulf States picnic, for former residents or visitors from Texas, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama, will be held at Biscayne Grove Park on Saturday, the 18th inst. An elaborate program will be presented beginning at 2 p.m.

OTHER SESSIONS PLANNED

Superior Judge Edmonds, presiding judge of the criminal division, and Superior Judge Fricke both commented upon the importance of gathering evidence in the case of automobile thefts. E. L. Bruck of the Division of Motor Vehicles also spoke of the importance of checking the automobile ownership certificates.

It is the plan of Chief Davis to hold meetings of the police chiefs regularly as soon as a program can be worked out.

—many more just as interesting—and the time grows short!

There are coats and coats—then there are coats designed especially for California—beyond that there are Dyas coats, specially provided in this August Sale—wherein you may purchase with every assurance of fabric, tailoring, fur and fashion—pictures, as above, tell something, but not enough—therefore, best see them—and compare!

Fabrics and tailoring alone would warrant almost, if not fully, the sale price featured—55.00—lovely soft pile fabrics that drape with grace and yet tailor with smart mannish finish. Furs of contrast or subtle blending in tone—the new collars are definitely different—the new silhouettes, feminine yet trim—coats for all fall and winter—and for now!

COUNTY VOTER ROSTER GROWS

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 9.—A gain of approximately 500 registered voters in this county this year over the last four years, according to data compiled by County Registrar M. J. McMillen. The 1924 figures show a total of 900,000 voters, while the 1927 figures show 950,000.

County Registrar M. J. McMillen said that the increase in the number of registered voters is due to a number of factors, including the fact that many people who were previously unregistered have now come forward to register.
